

CODE OF CONDUCT

Nordic Game 2015 is arranged by Nordic Game Resources AB. We value everyone's participation in the conference and aim to provide all participants and guests with an enjoyable, inspiring experience in a safe and non-hostile environment.

We expect all attendees to show appropriate respect and courtesy to one another. We require all visitors, speakers, exhibitors, sponsors, partners, organisers and volunteers at the Nordic Game 2015 to adhere to our Code of Conduct.

Nordic Game Resources AB is dedicated to providing a safe, non-hostile and harassment-free conference experience for everyone involved, regardless of gender, sexual orientation, race, religion, disability or physical appearance. We do not tolerate harassment of conference participants in any form.

All communication should be appropriate for a professional audience including people of different cultures and/or backgrounds. Sexual language and imagery is not appropriate for any conference venue at Nordic Game, including talks. Words should be carefully chosen, behaviour should be professional and not insulting to other attendees.

Harassment, and sexist, racist or exclusionary statements or jokes are not appropriate behaviour at the Nordic Game conference. Any attendee violating this Code may be asked to leave the event, without refund, at the sole discretion of the Nordic Game staff.

Thank you for being kind to others and for helping to make this a friendly event for all!

If you are being harassed or notice anyone else being harassed, please do not hesitate to notify the Nordic Game conference staff, or contact:
